RE: Duka v. Alliance Tri-State Construction, Inc., et al.
Case No. 20-cv-6648 (JLR)

Dear Judge Rochon:

This firm represents Plaintiff in the above referenced matter. I write jointly with counsel for Defendants to request a brief extension of the deadlines set forth in the Court's Order dated March 6, 2023 (ECF Doc. No. 64). Pursuant to that Order, motions in limine, as well as all pre-trial filings are to be submitted by April 10, 2023. Oppositions to motions in limine are due April 17, 2023 and replies are due April 21, 2023.

The parties respectfully request that the above schedule be modified as follows:

Motions in Limine and Pre-trial Filings:	April 17, 2023
Opposition to Motions in Limine:	April 24, 2023
Replies:	May 1, 2023

The parties have been diligently working towards completing the documents, namely Plaintiff has sent to counsel for Defendants a draft pre-trial order, and expects to send joint proposed voir dire questions and jury instructions before the end of the week. However, the reason for this request is because counsel for both parties have had multiple depositions and mediations over the past two weeks and continuing through this week which have complicated the parties' efforts to timely submit all required documents. The religious holidays this week and this weekend further compounds the situation. This is the parties' first request for an extension, and it should not affect any of the other deadlines set forth in the March 6, 2023 Order.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ William Brown
